

Accepting an invite

- 1 If a person is invited to Crewchief Systems, a message is sent to the informed email containing the registration link

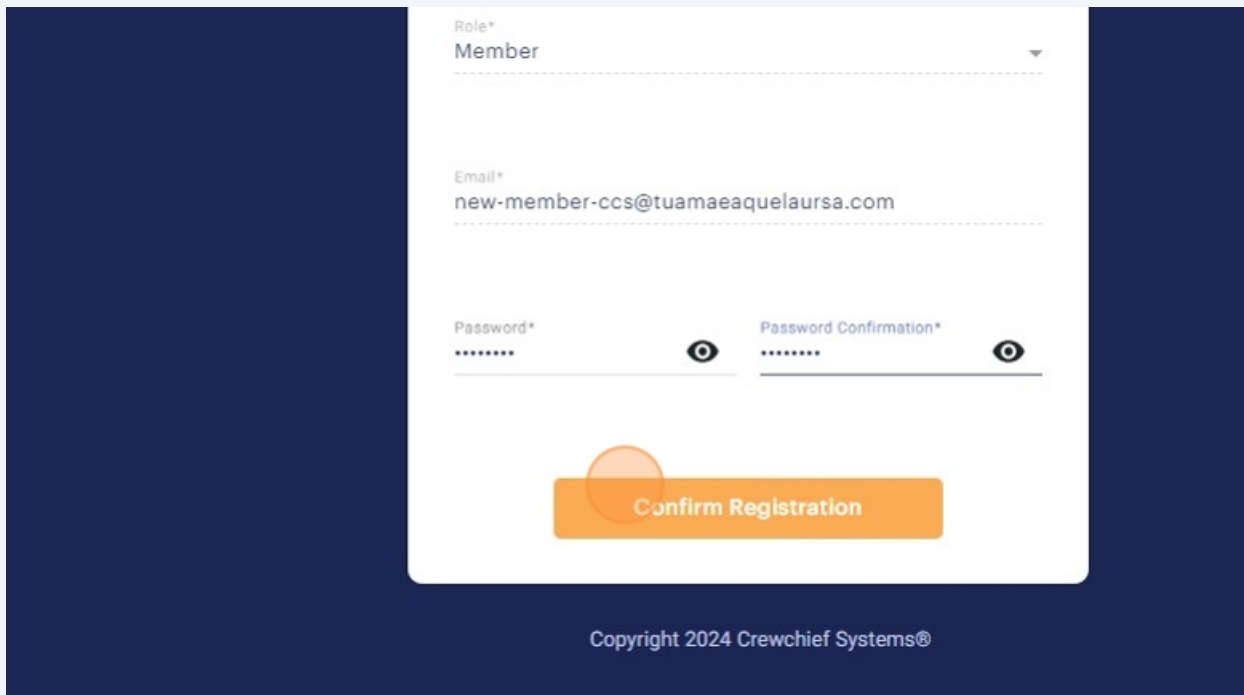

- 2 On this email the person has to click on the "Accept Your Invitation" button

- 3 All the previous info added when inviting the person must be displayed, the new member can edit it and then add the password

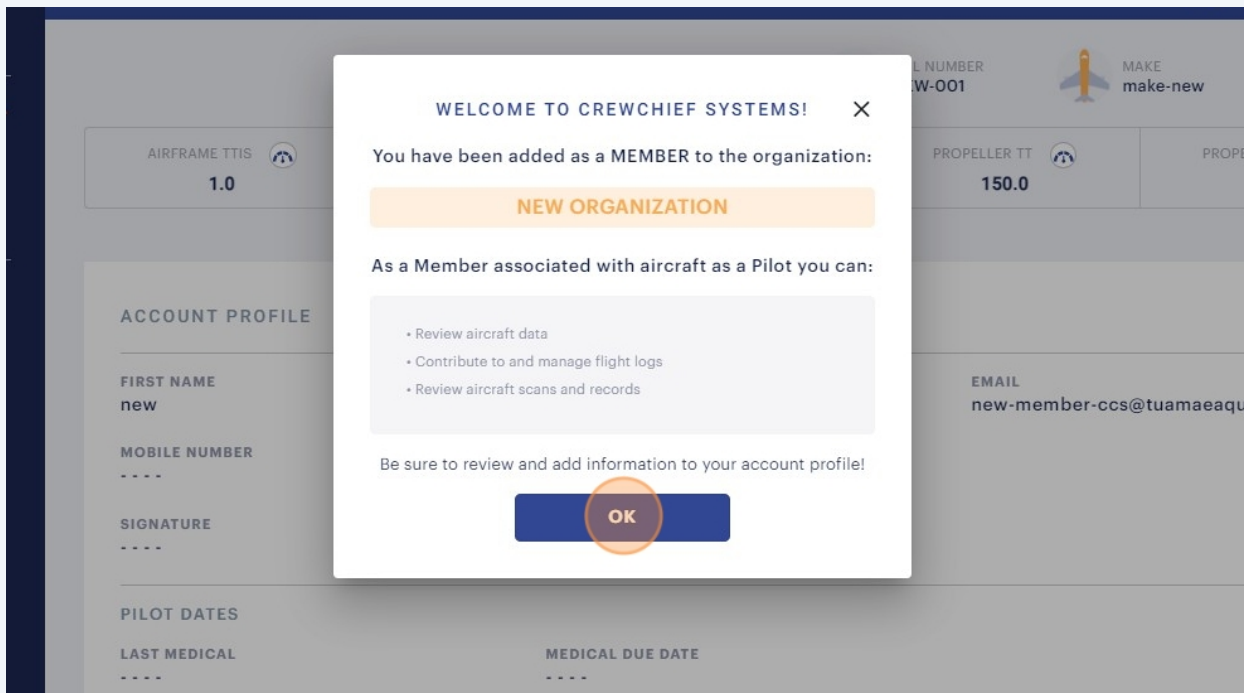

4 The user must click on "Confirm Registration" to conclude the invite

5 If all is successful, the new member will receive a welcome message that explains the role assigned to them

A welcome message dialog box titled "WELCOME TO CREWCHIEF SYSTEMS!". The message says: "You have been added as a MEMBER to the organization: NEW ORGANIZATION". It lists permissions for a Member associated with aircraft as a Pilot: Review aircraft data, Contribute to and manage flight logs, and Review aircraft scans and records. It also says "Be sure to review and add information to your account profile!". An "OK" button is at the bottom. The background shows a user profile page with fields like AIRFRAME TTIS (1.0), ACCOUNT PROFILE, FIRST NAME (new), MOBILE NUMBER, SIGNATURE, PILOT DATES, LAST MEDICAL, and MEDICAL DUE DATE.
